

Presents

BABY SONGBIRD REHABILITATION TRAINING WORKSHOPS

Topics for Raising Baby Birds for Release:

- Identification and initial care of baby birds
- Health and safety protocols
- Feeding and nutrition
- Housing and general care
- Strategies for release preparation
- Release protocols

Workshops led by:

Katie Stubblefield, Clinic Manager

&

Liana DiNunzio, Avian Program Coordinator

SATURDAYS
April 23rd and May 28th
9am—3pm

Same workshop will be presented both days, volunteers only need to attend one

Alabama Wildlife Center

Oak Mountain State Park

100 Terrace Drive

Pelham, Alabama 35124

Telephone: (205) 663-7930

Help Line: (205) 633-7930, Ext. 2

Fax: (205) 682-6867

www.awrc.org

Please register by April 16, 2016. Handbooks will be distributed to pre-registered attendees first; late registrants and walk-ins are welcome, but there may be a wait for your handbook and you must pre-register to reserve lunch. Prerequisite: must be an active AWC Animal Care Volunteer.

Register by phone, email, or sign-up sheet in AWC Clinic:
(205) 663-7930, Ext. 3
volunteer@awrc.org